

RECITALS AUSTRALIA

Lunch Hour Awards

There will be six Awards per Lunch Hour Series – a maximum of three Awards of $1000 each, with the balance of the six Awards being $100 each.

Eligible performers electing to be considered for a Lunch Hour Award will be asked to perform in a 'finals' concert held at the end of the Series in which they have performed. The Awards will be made immediately following this concert.

Eligibility Criteria

Lunch Hour Awards are open to all instrumental and vocal soloists who:

- are current members of Recitals Australia
- are under the age of 30 and still undertaking studies in their instrument
- do not yet have an established professional career in music.
- have performed a full solo Lunch Hour recital in the relevant Series.

Eligible performers also need to be aware that they:

- can win a maximum of three Awards.
- cannot win an Award in successive Series.

Adjudication Procedure

Early in the arrangement of a Lunch Hour Series program prospective performers eligible for a Lunch Hour Award will be

- alerted to the conditions of the Lunch Hour Awards competition;
- provided with a list of performers eligible for Lunch Hour Awards;
- requested to confirm as to whether or not they wish to participate in the Lunch Hour Awards competition at least three weeks before the 'finals' concert.

Eligible performers electing to perform in the Lunch Hour Awards competition will be informed of their acceptance three weeks before the 'finals' concert.

Each performer electing to perform in the 'finals' concert, whose confirmation has been received by the due date, will perform for 10 to 15 minutes.

The adjudication panel for the competition will consist of three people two of whom will be Council Members.

PUBLICITY
